3. Upon entry of this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture ("Preliminary Order"), the United States Attorney General or his designee is authorized to seize the Forfeitable Assets and to conduct any proper discovery, in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3) and (c), and to commence any applicable proceedings to comply with statutes governing third-party rights, including giving notice of this Preliminary Order.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the United States will not seize the DCSL Resort prior to entry of a Final Order of Forfeiture or further Order of the Court. The Post-Conviction Protective Order dated August 21, 2015, as modified by the Court's Modification to Post-Conviction Order dated February 7, 2017 (together, the "Protective Order"), shall remain in place pending further Order of the Court, and any application to modify the Protective Order shall be made on good cause shown and on notice to all parties and all other persons who have made submissions to the Court concerning the Protective Order.

4. The United States shall publish notice of this Preliminary Order, in accordance with the custom and practice in this district, on the government website www.forfeiture.gov, of its intent to dispose of Forfeitable Assets in such a manner as the

5. Any person, other than the defendant, asserting a legal interest in the Forfeitable Assets may, within thirty (30) days of the final publication of notice or receipt of notice, or no later than sixty (60) days after the first day of publication on an official government website, whichever is earlier, petition the Court for a hearing without a jury to adjudicate the validity of his or her alleged interest in the Forfeitable Assets, and for an amendment of the order of forfeiture, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(6). Any petition filed in response to the notice of forfeiture of the Forfeitable Assets must be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title and interest in the property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title, or interest in the property, any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim, and relief sought.

6. The defendant shall not file or interpose any claim or assist others to file or interpose any claim to the Forfeitable Assets or to any assets against which the government seeks to enforce the Forfeiture Money Judgment in any administrative or judicial proceeding. The defendant shall fully assist the government in effectuating the repatriation, surrender and forfeiture of the Forfeitable Assets and the payment of the Forfeiture Money Judgment to the United States. The defendant shall take whatever steps are necessary to ensure clear title to the Forfeitable Assets passes to the United States, including the execution of any and all documents necessary to effectuate the repatriation, surrender and forfeiture of the Forfeitable Assets to the United States. If the Forfeitable Assets, or any portion thereof, are not forfeited to the United States, the United States may seek to enforce this Preliminary Order against any other assets of the defendant up to the value of the Forfeitable Assets, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 982(b) and 21 U.S.C. § 853(p).

7. This Preliminary Order of Forfeiture adjudicates the government's interest in the Forfeitable Assets without regard to any third party's interest in the property. Pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n), the Court will address and resolve the interests of third parties after the entry of this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture.

8. Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(4)(A) and (B), this Preliminary Order shall become final at the time of the defendant's sentencing and shall be made part of the defendant's sentence and included in his judgment of conviction. If no third party files a timely claim, this Preliminary Order, together with Supplemental Orders of Forfeiture, if any, shall become the Final Order of Forfeiture, as provided by Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(2). At that time, the properties forfeited herein shall be forfeited to the United States for disposition in accordance with the law.

9. The United States alone shall hold title to the monies paid by the defendant to satisfy the Forfeiture Money Judgment following the Court's entry of the judgment of conviction. Following the Court's disposition of all third-party interests, or, if none, following the expiration of the period provided in 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(2), the United States alone shall hold title to the Forfeitable Assets.

10. The forfeiture of the Forfeitable Assets and the entry and payment of the Forfeiture Money Judgment shall not be considered a payment of a fine, penalty, restitution, or any income taxes that may be due, and shall survive bankruptcy.

11. This Preliminary Order shall be binding upon the defendant and the successors, administrators, heirs, assigns and transferees of the defendant, and shall survive the bankruptcy of any of them.

12. This Preliminary Order shall be binding only upon the Court “so ordering” the order.

13. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over this action to enforce this Preliminary Order and to amend it as necessary, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(e).

14. The Clerk of the Court is directed to send, by inter-office mail, five (5) certified copies of this executed Order to FSA Paralegal, Kristen Lake, United States Attorney’s Office, Eastern District of New York, 610 Federal Plaza, 5th Floor, Central Islip, New York 11722.
